Cost Transfers

- This FY G&C will be focusing on the causes of the many cost transfers done across sponsored research and other areas.
- I would like to say that many of these can be avoided if proper vetting is done before approving an expense.
- Initiators should be checking budgets for correct grant, adequate funding and allowability before submitting an expense authorization or requisition, no rubberstamping approvals.
- Do not purchase items on one grant with the intent to move some to another later on. Split the transaction from the get-go or do separate transactions.
- Before adding effort to a grant check to see if the budget can afford it and if in the right period.
- Be mindful of charging to the correct grant line in an Award with multiple grant lines. Especially those with Participant Support and Research Subject grant lines.
- Review your processes with an eye to constant improvement so to reduce errors.³²

FY26 Cost Share

- It is that time again to review your yearly commitments to cost share. I realize I harp on this a lot, but it is so important.
- Make your plan, fund your worktags and load up the cost share effort for the year as far out as you can.
- We need cost share expenses in step with the sponsored spending as best we can.
- Please use the Cost Share Exception Report that Josh sends out beginning of the month to help you manage.

COMPLIANCE CONVERSATIONS

Grants in Transition: Practical Steps for Navigating the Now and Preparing for What's Next

1-2:30 p.m. ET | Wednesday, June 25

Managing through:

- Policy and documentation pressure
- Budget modifications and spending down
- Desk reviews and de-obligation prep

Goal: Offer real-world strategies to stay ahead of scrutiny.

Have you checked?

- Mandated disclosures (2 CFR 200.113, 300.17)
- Common gaps in outdated policies

Proactive approach

- Scheduled reviews
- Internal tracking tools

- Modifying within the lines: pre-approval thresholds and flexibilities
- Creating a spend-down strategy that aligns with program goals
- Talking to program leads early before a crisis triggers it

Document

- If it's not documented... it didn't happen
- What good documentation looks like:
 - Clear, Defined, Legible
 - Supports justification →

Defense

- Substantive
- Relates to the topic
- Examples

Are you a Red Flag?

- High unobligated balances draw attention
- Link between balances and perceived program performance
- Tactics:
 - Budget realignment
 - Obligation planning
 - Communications with funders

Doesn't always get it right—but always knows why

- Tracks every grant separately
- Reviews the CFR before spending
- Asks questions before acting
- Documents decisions with context
- Proactively resolves inconsistencies

“I ask too many questions—my CFO says I give her anxiety!” – Scrappy Grantee

Spent the money—but lost the trail

- No real-time tracking of grant activity
- Procurement decisions made without policy review
- Missed documentation on programmatic vs. fiscal alignment
- Late reporting triggered flags during monitoring

“I didn’t realize we needed to document that.”

– Grantee, post-audit

New Focus

- Changes to Work Programs
- Fiscal Review
- Performance Review
- Policy Alignment Review - New
 - Aligns with program intent
 - Aligns with current Eos
 - Requests for different types of supporting documentation

Impacts

- Corrective Action Plan
- Questioned Costs
- De-obligation
- Termination

- Review and revise your policies now
- Don't delay tough conversations about budget reallocation
- Create a grant documentation folder—centralized, organized, accessible
- Prep for reviews now—even if you haven't been contacted

Annual Statement of Reasonableness

- Annual Statement of Reasonableness referred to as ASRs or effort reports are the tool for employees to certify the effort/salary distribution for the previous fiscal year (FY25)
- It is critical that these get approved by both the employee and the ASR approver
- 6,000+ ASR will be electronically distributed Friday July 18th to all employees charged to a GR worktag
- A link will be sent to all ASR approvers where we will save all manual ASR by department to aid with any corrections or manual ASRs. We will update the site regularly to only include unconfirmed ASRs.
- We are working diligently to make sure all data is accurate including the employees home department but if you have concerns or questions, please reach out to easr.ask@office365.gatech.edu
- ASRs only include Institutional Base Salary, so ledger accounts outside of this definition are not included, see G&C definitions and examples here
- ASRs are expected to be certified by the employee and ASR approver by the deadline of 8/29

Annual Statement of Reasonableness - Resources

- DocuSign Templates are available to assist with manual signature by employee or firsthand certification if the employee has graduated or left the Institute; electronic confirmation is always preferred
- Please see the May and June Buzz presentation at <https://grants.gatech.edu/latest-buzz-gc-accounting> for details
- Additional short trainings have been created and posted on our website at <https://grants.gatech.edu/training>

New Spend Codes for membership types

- Each quarter, GT is required to report on amount spent for institutional memberships to federal government.
- It is important to be able to distinguish between INDIVIDUAL vs INSTITUTIONAL memberships when posting membership expense.
- For Individual Memberships – please use spend code: SC727130 – Other Operating Expenses – Individual Memberships.
- For Institutional Memberships (NEW) – please use spend code: SC727132 – Other Operating Expenses – Institutional Memberships.

Spend Category Object	Spend Category Hierarchies Objects	Top Level Spend Category Hierarchies	Reference ID	Commodity Detail	Procurement Usage	Expense Usage	Supplier Invoice Usage	Ad Hoc Payment Usage	Allocate Freight	Allocate Other Charges
SC727130 - Other Operating Expense - Individual Memberships	ATHL038 - Memberships & Dues ATHL General & Admin Other Operating Expense	ATHL All Spend Categories ATHL NCAA All Spend Categories GT All Spend Categories	SC727130		Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No	No
SC727132 – Other Operating Expense – Institutional Memberships	ATHL038 - Memberships & Dues ATHL General & Admin Other Operating Expense	ATHL All Spend Categories ATHL NCAA All Spend Categories GT All Spend Categories	SC727132		Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No	No

Institutional vs Individual Memberships

- Institutional Memberships – type of membership where the entire university or a specific school/department/unit within the university joins a group or organization rather than individual members.
 - AE has joined the Royal Aeronautical Society (RAeS) to benefit the entire department
 - OSP has become a member of NCURA to benefit the entire department of research administrators
- Individual Memberships – type of membership where an individual from a school/department/unit joins a group or organization.
 - ME wants to send PI to a conference but it's cheaper to buy the membership for the PI because the membership includes a discount to conference fees. The total cost of membership plus conference is cheaper than the conference fees alone.
 - If the department wants to send a PI to a conference without any type of membership, that would be a conference registration expense and NOT a membership expense.
 - School of Engineering pays IEEE membership for a professor
- The school/department/unit typically joins a professional group or organization to gain benefits such as networking, professional development and industry resources such as publications.
- The memberships should have a clear and direct benefit for the institute. For additional information regarding this topic, please visit: Professional Memberships | Controller's Office

Welcome to Georgia Tech's Certified Research Administrator (CRA) Study Group!

Our Certified Research Administrator (CRA) Study Group will help to prepare you to sit for the upcoming certification exam, offered by the Research Administrators Certification Council \(RACC\).

With fun-filled topics ranging from the Uniform Guidance (2 CFR 200) to Effort Reporting and Subawards – and almost everything in between, there will surely be something for everyone.

Our content is set-up in 11 modules, with additional helpful resources throughout. Most of it is available asynchronously/on-demand (videos, presentation slides, quizzes). Some may prefer to take each of these on a weekly basis, leading up to the upcoming exam window. There will also be three live/virtual sessions to debrief and discuss the modules:

- March 22nd: Modules 1-4
- April 19th: Modules 5-8
- May 10th: Modules 9-11, Final Discussion

Note: Completing these 11 modules will not guarantee a passing score on the exam. Individuals should expect to spend additional time preparing for the exam. Special focus and additional time should be allotted in subject areas and concepts where you are less familiar.

Your future in research administration starts here.

Click below to jump into General Information tab to begin to prepare for the CRA exam.

You can also use the navigational headers at the top of the page, noting that the quizzes within the modules are password protected for tracking purposes. Reach out to training@osp.gatech.edu with any questions!
